How to Get a Medical Marijuana Card in Jacksonville, Florida in 2025

Meta Title: How to Get a Medical Marijuana Card in Jacksonville, FL in 2025

Meta Description: Learn how you can get a Jacksonville medical marijuana card in 3 simple steps. Also, learn about the eligibility criteria and how much an MMJ may cost you.

Since the legalization of Marijuana in Florida, many people seeking alternative herbal therapies are turning towards Cannabis. If you are dealing with a chronic medical condition, from chronic pain, PTSD, or migraine headaches, you are always looking for safer and effective treatment options. Though traditional medications are available but they are not always effective for everyone. They can also cause serious side effects in some patients and carry the risk of addiction and dependency.

Many users are wondering if Medical Marijuana is legal in Jacksonville? What are the eligibility requirements? What are the laws around using cannabis? And how to get a Jacksonville medical marijuana card? This article will help you find answers to your questions and settle the dust for once and all.

What are the eligibility requirements to get a Medical Marijuana Card in 2025?

Not everyone can use Marijuana for their symptoms. The State of Florida has specific requirements that every user needs to meet to qualify for a medical marijuana card in Jacksonville, Florida.

1. Florida residency

Both permanent and seasonal Florida residents can apply to get an MMJ card in Jacksonville. If you are a resident of Jacksonville, you have to prove residency with documents. Seasoned residents can also be eligible, and they must meet certain requirements, including:

- Spend 31 consecutive days in Florida each year.
- Pay income tax.
- Maintain a temporary residence in Florida

You must adhere to the regulations that the State has stipulated. Residency is just one of the conditions to apply for a Medical Marijuana Card, Jacksonville. You must meet all the other requirements to get your Florida medical marijuana card 2025.

2. Age Limit

Adults above the age of 18 can apply for a medical card. Minors can also apply, but they must have a legal guardian or a caregiver to manage the use of marijuana on their behalf. Minors under the age of 18 require approval from two state-licensed medical marijuana doctors in Jacksonville.

3. Qualifying health condition

You must also have a qualifying medical condition to be eligible for a Medical Marijuana Card, Jacksonville. The State of Florida has developed a comprehensive list of conditions that serve as an eligibility criterion. Some medical conditions for which Florida residents can apply for a card are:

- Anxiety
- Back Pain
- Cachexia
- Diabetes
- Hepatitis C
- Insomnia & Sleep Disorders
- Irritable Bowel Syndrome (IBS)
- Lyme Disease
- Migraine Headaches
- Muscle Spasms
- Muscular Dystrophy
- Rheumatoid Arthritis
- Severe & Chronic Pain
- Severe Nausea
- Sickle Cell Anemia
- Spasticity
- Cancer
- Glaucoma
- Crohn’s Disease
- Multiple Sclerosis (MS)
- Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS)
- Chronic nonmalignant pain
- Epilepsy
- Human Immune Deficiency Virus (HIV) & Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS)
- Parkinson’s Disease
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)
- Chronic pain

If your condition causes severe or persistent symptoms that affect your quality of life, your physician may recommend medical marijuana even if it’s not explicitly listed. The lists can extend to conditions with debilitating symptoms like those mentioned above. This can be determined by a licensed physician. You can quickly assess your application eligibility by consulting with a specialist at My Florida Green. You can also check your eligibility online as a first step towards obtaining the Marijuana Card.

You must remember to see a qualified Medical Marijuana doctor before applying for a Medical Marijuana Card.

What is the step-by-step application for a Medical Marijuana Card, Jacksonville?

The State of Florida has developed a straightforward process for patients who are seeking to use Marijuana for their health condition. These regulations are put in place to ensure safe consumption of Cannabis. You must follow this simple step-by-step process to get your medical marijuana card in 2025:

Step 1: Consult a Qualified Physician

The first step is to book an in-person appointment with a certified medical marijuana doctor. During the consultation, the doctor will assess your medical condition and see if cannabis could help you. You must take all relevant medical records, including current medications, to the consultation. The physicians will ensure that Marijuana is safe for you before recommending your name to the Medical Marijuana Use Registry.
Today, there are telehealth services offered by Medical Marijuana doctors. If you are renewing your card, you can do it through an online consultation.

You cannot take an online consultation if you are applying for the Card for the first time.

Step 2: Prepare your documentation

The doctor will provide you with a certification that is necessary to become eligible for medical marijuana. Other than this, you must have the following documents with you to continue the application process:

- A Florida driver's license or state ID.
- Proof of residency in Florida.
- A passport-style photo.

Make sure all your documents are up to date before application submission.

Step 3: Submit Your Application Through OMMU

Once the Medical Marijuana doctor has approved your eligibility, you will need to prepare all the necessary documents. You can apply through the Office of Medical Marijuana Use (OMMU) to get certified for medical marijuana treatment. You will be asked to pay a $75 application fee at the time of submission. On approval, your card will be sent to your email and registered address. This card is valid for one year, and then you'll need to renew it.

How much does it cost to get a Medical Marijuana Card in Jacksonville?

The cost of applying for a Medical Marijuana Card, Jacksonville, you have to pay for the doctor's fees and the online application. The breakdown of payments includes:

1. Doctor consultation fee:

A medical marijuana doctor near me charges $190 (on average) for a consultation. However, My Florida Green helps you get certified at just $169. It includes everything from condition assessment to helping you register on MMUR. Prices can vary depending on the provider, so you'll likely see a range from $160 to $200.

2. Application Fee

You have to pay an annual payment of $75 to the Florida Department of Health. If you choose My Florida Green to get your Medical Marijuana card in Jacksonville, that brings the total to $244.

3. Medical Marijuana Card, Jacksonville renewal fee

After one year, you'll need to renew your card to continue using it for your medical cannabis treatment. While others charge around $150, My Florida Green cares about you and only charges $99.

What and Where You Can Buy with Your MMJ Card in Jacksonville?

Jacksonville has several licensed dispensaries where you can buy your medical marijuana. These dispensaries are all regulated by the OMMU, which means they are held to high standards, and they adhere to State regulations. Products at these dispensaries are free from pesticides and are guaranteed to be safe.

Jacksonville has several dispensaries you can check out. Some of the popular ones include Curaleaf, Trulieve, Ayr Cannabis, and Surterra. They are all known for offering a variety of products and great customer service.

A lot of dispensaries also offer home delivery services, which makes cannabis accessible to those with mobility issues. There is a variety of products available in Florida, so you have plenty of options to choose from. Here are some cannabis products that you are allowed to purchase with an MMJ card:

- Flower
- Edibles
- Oils and Tinctures
- Vape Cartridges
- Topicals
- Concentrates

Remember, not all products are available at every dispensary, so it's a good idea to check in with your local dispensary ahead of time to see what's in stock. You must also carry your Medical Marijuana Card, Jacksonville, to the dispensaries.

My Florida Green is assisting patients in Jacksonville

The State of Florida has developed a straightforward Marijuana certification process. Even though the process is not complex but some patients can find it overwhelming. Many don't know where to start. For such individuals, we, at My Florida Green, offer support and guidance at every step of the certification process. You can check your eligibility online. If you qualify, you can schedule a physical consultation with an experienced and licensed Medical Marijuana doctor, Jacksonville. We have a huge network of certified physicians across all of Florida.

Reach out to our compassionate team and start your journey today!